Eligibility Criteria for Nominees

- Athlete must perform their sport and (ongoing) achievement during the 2018 calendar year. This may not include the entire season but the majority of it.
- Athlete must be of an amateur status.
- Athletes of any age are eligible for nomination.
- Athletes may participate in any type of sport to be considered for selection.
- A “team” nominated is based on team participation during their competition. As an example, tennis may have singles (individual nomination) or doubles (team nomination). The nomination should be due to their performance as the individual or as the team.
- All nominees must reside or attend a school within a 30 mile radius of the Rochester community. Nominees that live within a 30-mile radius, but attend a school outside of the boundary are still eligible. Eligible surrounding communities: Byron, Chatfield, Dodge Center, Dover-Eyota, Fillmore, Fountain, Goodhue, Grand Meadow, Hayfield, Kasson-Mantorville, Lake City, Lewiston-Altura, Pine Island, Plainview-Elgin-Millville, Spring Valley, Stewartville, St. Charles, Wanamingo, West Concord, Wykoff, Zumbrota-Mazeppa.
- Collegiate/Post High School athletes are now eligible for the Post High School Athlete of the Year but must have graduated from a high school located in the 30 mile radius as defined above. These individuals will no longer qualify for Male or Female Athlete of the Year.
- Athletes must be in good standing with their respective school.
